COLLEGE JAMBOREE

*To motivate
young people to be better citizens.*

College Jamboree Detail October 28, 2009. The College Jamboree is when cadets come to find their future college that has the ROTC program. There will be a lot of information for cadets that might want to attend a certain college. Different colleges will be at this event like West Point Military Academy, Michigan University, University of Tennessee and many more colleges. So make sure if you're a senior cadet that you talk to your instructor about colleges.

Hello my name is C/MSG Baker. I am your S-4 for the year of 2009-10. My job is being in charge of all equipment and uniforms. I like my job because I like helping people with things in I am very good at it. I showed that I has the abilities to be in leadership positions and was capable to withstand the position. I am a very motivate cadet and take my job and my rank serious. And the future, I would like to take the leadership position as the Battalion Commander. This year our Cadet Commander is doing a very good job and I would one day want to be in her position.
